Dear James Westbrooks,

I would like to formally request a meeting with you at your earliest convenience to speak with you about Blue Roof Studios' second annual Arts Festival.

We are delighted to present this experience once more and we are well under way into formalizing this year's great line up. We plan to have several art workshops, both inside the parking lot and out in the sidewalk of Broadway and 74th Street. This year, we are teaming up with Arts Bridging the Gap, a local non-profit organization dedicated to building arts programs that impact the local youth of South Los Angeles. They will be creating a mural with local youth and the 77th Police Division and painting it on our 4th Street facing wall.

Additionally, we will have a chalk drawing workshop on the Broadway sidewalk right at the main entrance of Blue Roof Studios, led by artist Amanda Maciel-Antunes. Previously Amanda and Galia, the BRS founder collaborated on a multi-sensory installation of which several performances and events emerged such as the fifth grade studio field trips in collaboration with 75th Street Elementary School. Below you will find their letters reflecting on their time at BRS. I am reaching out to you so that I can ask if CD9 can power wash the sidewalk on Broadway and 74th Street in preparation for the festival so that attendees can have a clean slate of cement to draw on during the festival.

Please let me know when you can be available to meet with me. I would greatly appreciate the opportunity.

Hi Carlos,
Such a pleasure to be emailing you!
I got your info from Patty Kerrigan who I believe you met at the Hollywood xmas parade :)
The timing is perfect as we are actually doing our first mural in 77th div next sunday!
We have 10 murals to do in each council district and each one involved LAPD and at risk youth. Id love to start looping you and your team in as we have a few coming up in 77th :)

We are currently working closely with Newton and South East just near you guys so love to add you to our team!

The long term plan usually is to get your team also involved in the designing and interacting with the kids as we plan them too - love to chat more with you about it!

Huge smiles and look forward to hearing from you!

Subject: 3311 S Main St. "The Marke Nightclub"

Good afternoon Carlos and Cat,

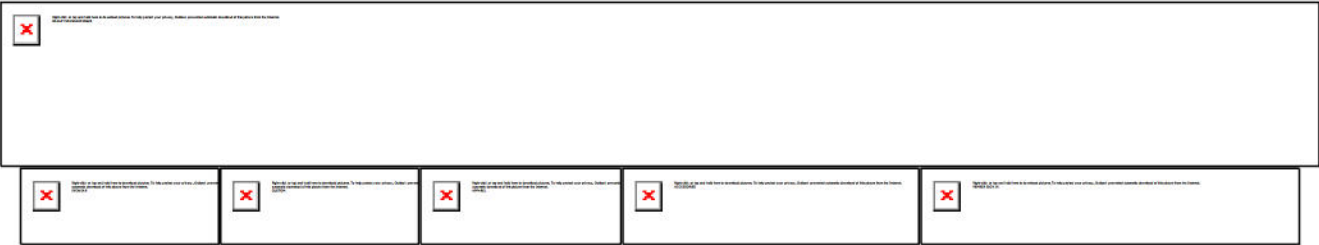

I'm working on a case for the address noted above for a Public Hearing on 11/06/2018. Are either of you familiar with the site or would you kindly point me in the right location to the SLO for that property?

Thank you,
